

GREELEY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Investor-to-Investor Benefits

What are I2I Benefits?

As an added benefit to your Chamber investment, the Chamber has an Investor-to-Investor Discount program. This program will allow you to directly target other Chamber investors with an exclusive discount available only to them. This discount, along with your company information, appears on the Chamber website. Flyers featuring I2I discounts are also available at Chamber connection events. You will be advertising your business while boosting business among Chamber investors.

Why is this program important?

This program promotes the basic tenet of the Greeley Chamber of Commerce: Doing business with Chamber investors. Your offer will be advertised to more than 600 area businesses and over 35,000 individuals. You will also have these discounts available to you as an investor. You can view the current I2I discounts at our website: www.greeleychamber.com.

How do you get involved?
